CALIFORNIA FOR HEALTH. Mild Climats, Rare Medical Springs and Charming Scenery.

There are many conditions of the ody in which a change of environment far more valuable as a remedial agent than all the medicine that can be prescribed. California is peculiarly fitted to give all that nature can give in this direc-tion. To the newcomer the environ-ment is so strange and so striking that it claims the undivided attention. Everywhere and all the time there is something strange and interesting to a wide range from which to choose. In elevation from about 200 feet below sea level to 6000 to 7000 above, in hu-midity from the moist sca breezes of the coast to the dry, invigorating air of the inland mountain ranges; in temperature, from the almost perpetual summer of the southern part of the State to the more severe, though not unpleasant climate of the upper Si-In addition to all this, there are nu-having marked medicinal qualities, which have already won for them a wide reputation. At some of these sanitariums have been erected, and all the conveniences of modern civilization There, too, one can enjoy a more healthful and varied diet than is accessible in any other locality. Fresh fruits and vegetables the year round, an abundance of wild games and meats that are nutritious and highly-flavored.

aerous mineral springs, many of them
